RUSSIAN ASSASSINATION. Governor of the Department of Ufa

Second Noah Collecting Animals. Benjamin of the Flying Rollers, the queer religious sect who are building what they call the City of David, just outside the limits of Benton Harbor, Mich., is getting together a variety of animals which he says will equal the collection made by Noah. Benjamin says that his object is the same as Noah's, for it is prophested that the world will come to an end shortly after the termination of the Chicago teamsters' strike. Up to date Benjamin has collected a monkey, a parakeet, cockatoos, parrots, Australian pigeons, many song birds, a Belgian hare, an Australian sheep and a goat. Most of these were brought over by the sect from Australia, and more animals are expected, with more persons, from that country. Benjamin has contracted for an dephant and several lions. He purposes to save all of them when the time comes.

ers of the national game, these men stole a march on the new and inexperienced players of Mount Vernon, and when the final count came Douglas was four runs to the good. The weather was very un-certain, but the rooters were on hand and were repaid by seeing a fast and snappy seven-inning game. Lewis was on the rub-ber for Douglas, and their victory can be mainly credited to him, as he allowed but three hits and fanned eight of the opposing batsmen. King, who twirled for Mount Vernon, was unsteady, and most of the hits made off him came in the sixth inning, when Douglas took the lead by four runs, the game being 2 to 2 at that time. Bohnke, Mr. Stern's latest find, made good both at the bat and in the field, and should his good work continue he will be registered as a regular. The work of Mack on second was good, he fielding his position well and batting 1,000 for the game. Harveycutter, besides driving in two of the three runs made by Mount Vernon, made two of the three hits, one a ripping two-sacker, the other a single, and the third hit being a double by McMahon, he being caught trying to stretch it into a triple. Friday Doug-las meets the Fifth Baptist team, the leaders of section B, and a good game can be looked for. Score:

Columbia's Big Start Defeated the St. Patricks.

Mud larks occupied the center of the stage at the Coliseum grounds yesterday. This and Monday put it in a lovely conditionfor ducks. Despite the handicaps encountered, however, a crackerjack contest resulted. The score, 7 to 4, in favor of the Columbia Athletic Club, was sufficiently close to keep up the interest of the shiver-ing spectators.

The Athletic Club sewed up the game in the first inning. They were materially aided by a youngster who tried to take care of affairs around the third pillow for St. Patricks. This youth had evidently forgotten any skill he may once have possessed in handling mud pies, for he so conducted himself that three black marks had to be chalked up against him, while the C. A. C.s recorded enough of those little run things to put them out of immediate danger.

Went out one, scored four in in the sixth. If the and seven the scoring.

Darkness prev sevent inning. recorded enough of those little run things to put them out of immediate danger.

After the first inning began a grand change on both teams. The score sheets resembled the records of a chess game. Players were switched from one position to another in bewildering rapidity. In all the instances, however, the wisdom of the managers was soon evident. Anderson's change of climate put more confidence in him for of climate put more confidence in him, fo he made a pretty catch of a high flyer and so accurately lined it home that he doubled up a runner at the plate. But the horse had been stolen and the St. Patricks got wise too late.

Eliminating the first inning, the game wa oo well played to be criticised. Both side pounded the horse hide victously, and only very sharp fielding prevented the run totals Stanley, who was on the firing line for the Saints, extricated himself from several vernasty situations by forcing the batters to drive the ball high in the air, giving his co workers opportunity to make good. In the fifth inning, however, his supporters didn't support. With two out and one on base Taylor hit a high fly to short center. Dowling, Harban and Kane reached the vicinage of the ball's probable destination almost simultaneously. Then it was the story of Alphonse, Gaston and Brother Leon—"you first"-and in the meantime the sphere had reached the limit of its momentum and had gently and gracefully come to rest, while the three did the comic supplement stunt.

Two runs resulted. Riston encountered his little bunch of trouble in the second round. Two men had been sent to the stable, when a base on balls was followed by a two-base swat by Stanley, an error and two raps for one cushion. Thus was the St. Patricks allowed to accumulate four large-sized scores. They looked as big as houses, as the Columbias were then only one ahead. Dowling was perched on the three-quarter station, and an error had permitted Day to reach first. Of course, the proper thing for the latter to do was to pilfer second, while Dowling would be in readiness to take advantage of any attempt to prevent it. But the St. Patricks' captain fell a victim to Hoyle, who plays the game according to rule, and thus ended their last chance to place themselves upon an equal footing with their op-ponents. Darkness prevented further hostilities. The score:

FORDHAM A WINNER. Defeated Georgetown Through Mc-Lean's Fine Pitching.

The blue and gray of Georgetown University was whitewashed yesterday afternoon by the sturdy players representing Fordham College of New York, the score being 6 to 0. But even though they lost, Georgetown University can remember the fact that the team which administered the calcimine was about as well balanced a this city. The Princeton Tigers beat both Georgetown University and Fordham, but from the conclusions of the games it was not to be believed for a moment that Fordham would administer such a defeat as that of yesterday to the blue and gray. But the way Georgetown University played was enough to give the aven to rooter heart failure, for those who has the interest of the athletics of the university at heart could not help for a moment eighing at some of the stupid plays of the blue and gray. True enough, McLean was on the slab for Fordham with an outshoot drop that was a marvelous creation and enough to take the vanity out of many a heavy hitter. Many things had been said of his prowess as a pitcher, and he upheld them all. While he is not as good a pitcher as Raiph Byram of the Princeton Tigers, he succeeded in defeating the blue and gray by a larger score. Georgetown University would much rather be beaten by any college other than their rivals, Fordham and Holy Cross. But this year it could not be helped, so far as the first game with the lads from giddy Gotham was concerned, though Georgetown will be was concerned, though Georgetown will be consoled by the fact that they have two more chances at their conquerors. The way the team was played yesterday was to a great extent responsible for the loss of the game. Martell is a fine player in the outfield, but at first base he will not do at all. Capt. Colliflower of the Commissioners team umpired the game, and on more than one occasion the blue and gray registered a kick when they thought they were get-ting the worst of the argument as far as the decisions were concerned. The score:

The Blanks defeated the Cowboys yesterday afternoon in the Printing Office League before the largest crowd of the season, and incidentally ousted the latter from first Play during the entire game was of the snappy variety, and kept the spectators interested from start to finish. The playing in this league is steadily improving, and in place of the headless ball played in the first few contests inside and scientific games are now predominating, as can be seen by the fact that four sacrifice hits were made yesterday—something unusual in this league.

usual in this league. Singleton was on the slab for the winners, and was hit safely ten times for a total of seventeen bases, but his team backed him up in fine style. Cotter, pitching for the Cowboys, seemed unfortunate in allowing hits when needed, and with better support would have won his game.

A sensational catch by Tredway in the first brought the crowd to its feet as it was one of the best ever seen on the Mahone lot. Each side scored three runs in the first. In the second the Cowboys got another, while the best Blank could do was to get a man as far as third. Singles by Reese and Gaffney and Dailey's double brought them two in the third, but the Cowboys went out one, two, three. The Cowboys scored four in the fourth and three more in the sixth. The Blanks got one in the fifth and seven in the sixth, which ended

Navy Beat Out Library in Loosely-Played Game.

By heavy and timely hitting the Navy team won from the Library of Congress boys yesterday afternoon on the White Lot by a score of 18 to 7. Although the winners secured but one more hit than the "book worms," theirs was of the slugging variety and came in bunches. Buckingham officiated on the slab for the winners and pitched a fair game. Wa-losers, but gave way to Skelly in the sixth. Waters did good work for several innings and deserves much credit as this was his. first box performance for several years. "Rube" Clark, the star pitcher of the Library team and one of the best in the District, was on first and could not go in the box owing to a lame arm.

The batting honors of the day went to "Shorty" Hughes, who secured four hits out of five times up. Clark was next best, with three. Hughes' playing at second was one of the features. Downs also did good work in the field. Base stealing was all the vogue yesterday. Hughes stole six times. After securing a base on balls in the seventh inning, he stole all the way around to the plate. Bryan stole three. The score:

Another one-sided game was played in the Marquette League yesterday afternoon, on their grounds, when the St. Vincent team defeated the Immaculate team by a score of 16 to 2. Ford did the twirling for the winners and pitched a fair game, while Drennan, for the Immaculate team, was touched up for seventeen hits, eight of which were two baggers. The fielding of the losers was miserable, ten errors being made. Spalding played a perfect game at short for the winners, accepting seven chances. The score: ST. VINCENT'S.

BIG TENNIS TOURNEY.

Wright and Clothier Beat Larned and Ward in the Mud.

In a drizzling rain, which made fast playing impossible, the round robin lawn tennis tournament wes continued yesterday afternoon on the Germantown Cricket Club's courts at Manheim. The courts were heavy and the ball failed to show any life after once striking the ground. The players experienced difficulty in getting a proper foothold on the slippery surface. As a result of the weather conditions there was a complete reversal of form, Billy Larned and Holcombe Ward the victors of Tuesday, being in turn defeated by Beals C. Wright and W. J. Clothier. The Clothier-Ward match was exciting.

On general play throughout the match the two men seemed about equal, but Clothier's victory was largely due to his splendid control in making cross-court returns, a large percentage of his points being gained by this stroke. He won by a score of 3-6, 6-4, 6-4. Wright seemed more at home on the heavy courts than Larned, and although the first set was more closely contested than the score indicates, the Bostonian made a strong finish, and by capturing the last three games won the set, 6—3.

The second set between this pair was sharply contested from first to last, and after the score had been called even at five after the score had been called even at five games all the pair won alternately up to seven all. Wright again proved the stronger finisher, and by capturing the fifteenth and sixteenth games won the set, 9-7.

As the singles were concluded a little earlier than expected a match in doubles was started, in which Wright and Ward, the national champion, succeeded in defeating Larned and Clothler in straight sets, 6-3, 4-4. 3. 4-4. Larned will meet Ward and Clothier will be opposed by Wright this afternoon, and as each of the players has already won and lost one match the victors of today will have to play off for first honors. BELMONT PARK RACES.

Gallavant Captured Maiden Stakes in a Romp.

Disagreeable weather seems to have no terrors for racegoers these days, for more than 10,000 persons went to Belmont Park yesterday, in spite of the drizzle and fog. The races were run over a heavy track, three favorites winning, with the other successful horses also well supported.

R. T. Wilson, jr.'s, Gallavant, an added starter, won the Madison stakes, for twoyear-olds, five furlongs. The Ornament colt was hammered down to 11 to 5 from threes, while August Belmont's Hastings colts while August Belmont's Hastings colts Woolwich and Bivouac went up to 7 to 10, a majority of the crowd keeping off. Gallavant simply reveled in the mud, and outran the others from the moment the gate went up. At the end he had ten lengths to spare, with Bivouac taking the place from Woolwich by a half length. The time was 1.012-5.

Leonard Joe Hayman, 9 to 5 favorite, was victorious in the second event, for two-year-olds, four and a half furlongs. He gowan, backed down to tens, the latter hav-ing a neck over the favorite, Lord Badge. who ran a poor race. The mile was covered in 1.47.

T. Hitchcock, jr.'s, Hylas, 7 to 5 favorite, was the winner of the steeplechase, at two miles, but only after the stewards had conferred over a protest of foul from Finnegan, who finished second with J. W. Colt's Sandhurst, backed down to threes. Ray waited with Hylas until next to the last jump had been passed, when he went to the whip. Hylas, who is a sluggish racer, swerved under punishment and bumped Sandhurst, knocking the latter out of his stride apparently. This occurred just before the final obstacle was reached, where Sandhurst lost much ground, but he came again in the run home and Hylas beat him only half a length. The stewards did not reach a verdict until they had called up Patrol Judge W. F. Presgrave, who stated that in his opinion no foul had occurred, an opinion which seemed to settle the controversy, as Hylas' victory was allowed to stand. Russel Sage, lowered to sevens, was third, half a dozen lengths away. Dick Roberts, backed down to fives, had no speed. The race was run in 4.06. race was run in 4.06.

The high-weight handlcap at seven furlongs was a two-horse affair between Kenil-worth, 1 to 2 favorite, and Rostand, as the other entries were withdrawn. Kenilworth

The Goughacres stable's Spring was a hot favorite in the first race, a handicap, at six furlongs, but he was never in the hunt. Nearly all of the professional tipsters where Mintia and Odd Ella, the pacemakers, tired, and won by a length and a half from Tony Aste's Miss Point, a 15 to 1 shot. Bill Daly's Gentian, backed down to 15 to 1, was a strong third. Time, 0.541-5.

Lichtenstein also dropped a fat commission on Lord Badge in the fourth race, and Charley Cash went with him. If Arrahgowan, owned by R. M. Taylor of Baltimore, had won, instead of being beaten by half a length, a killing would have been pulled off of no mean proportions. The ancient campaigner was backed down from 30 to 1 to tens, many of clubhouse patrons accepting the tiand playing it across the board. Boys Dismissed With Warning After Police Court Hearing.

Harry and Maurice Baker, small boys, were brought into the Juvenile Court before Judge Mills yesterday afternoon on charges of vagrancy. When the smallest of the pair appeared before the clerk's desk Clerk Potts hesitated and turned to the judge.

"Do you want this boy charged with vagrancy?" he asked. "He isn't big enough to be a vagrant," sald his honor.

According to the testimony that was given, these boys are sent out to beg by the people who keep them. The larger one is given shoestrings, and then he sends the small boy into stores and other such places to get money. The little fellow excites sympathy, it is said, and collects quite a sum of money every day. The shoestrings, it was alleged, were "a mere bluff." The case was reported to the authorities, and the lads were arrested. It was determined that the boys' guardians should be called to answer for sending the boys out in this way, and that action will be taken. The boys were admonished not to continue the practices, and were then discharged from
